

“Travelers who prefer boutique hotels to big cookie-cutter brands have long faced a trade-off. While often more charming and memorable than your typical chain hotel, most independent hotels don’t offer loyalty programs. Not anymore.”

— The New York Times

Business travel will never be the same

With Stash Hotel Rewards, members earn points for free nights at some of the best independent hotels across the U.S., from distinctive business-class properties to landmark historic inns to top-rated resorts.

So even if their trip is routine, their hotel stay won’t be.

Why join Stash?

One-of-a-kind

Stay at distinctive, independently-run hotels, each one with a story to tell

Fast

Get 5 points for every dollar spent, and earn free night ridiculously fast*

Flexible

Join for free, no blackout dates, and points never expire

Why contract with Stash partner hotels?

Points for your travelers

Business travelers want points. They collect those magical little numbers because they want their business travel to get them closer to a romantic getaway, or a family vacation, to make up for all the nights they’ve spent away from home.

Points for you

You deserve a vacation, too. Stash points could make your dream trip a reality. For travel managers, some Stash partners award points for bookings or hitting targets. Ask your hotel rep for details.

Points drive compliance

Money is lost when travelers go rogue just to get points. Contracting with Stash partner hotels allows travelers to earn the points they want at one-of-a-kind hotels, while also staying compliant with your company’s travel policy.
