

Stash Visa Signature Card

GSA FAQ

What is the Stash Signature Visa Card?

Members who use the card for purchases earn Stash points as they go. Members will earn:

- An extra 3 points per dollar on Stash Partner Hotel stays - a total of 8 pts per dollar!
- 2 points per dollar at any other hotel (yes, even chains)
- 2 points per dollar on dining and gas
- 1 point per dollar on all other purchases

Which bank issues the card?

Stash is partnering with Synchrony Financial to offer the Stash Card. Synchrony, formerly GE Financial, is the financial arm of GE and is the bank behind some of the top co-brand credit cards, including Amazon, WalMart, Banana Republic, Sam's Club, and BP.

Who can apply for the card?

Any Stash member can apply and they will need to submit an online application after joining the Stash program.

How do I sign up a member?

Because of the sensitive nature of credit cards, members need to sign up on their own and you can direct them to a landing page for the card on the Stash Rewards Home page - stashrewards.com/CreditCard.

Is there an annual fee for the card?

The annual fee is waived for the first year. After that, the fee is $85 per year.

Are there any incentives for becoming a cardholder?

New cardholders will receive 10,000 points for spending $1500 in the first 90 days, plus 10% points back for all completed redemptions.

How long does it take to get a card?

Typically, once a person is approved, they will receive the card in 10 days.

Is the card customizable?

No, the card will not be customizable.